Today, little lumps of clay decide to leave home to explore the big world.

There are so many wonders out there!

What happens to us next?

"Ah,
hello, Miss Wind!"

"First of all,
you need to change yourselves!"

That means we will become cups and vases and jugs and jars. Right, Miss Wind?

You will be more than that!
Great change awaits all of you!

No fear!
We are not afraid! Hi hi...

So the little lumps of clay
excitedly jump with joy.

Here

we go!

Dancing with the pottery wheel...

Sunbathing and windbathing...

Playing with fire...

"Oh, hello, pottery!"

"Ah,
we have got new names!"

From clay to pottery.
And now a new journey begins.

"I am going up to the highland!"

"I am going to the sea!"

"And i will fly in sky!"

Now the pottery can be seen everywhere.
Can you find out where they are?
